‘Minor’ Cross-Registered Students

‘Minor’ cross-registered students are enrolled full-time students who wish to attend individual complementary courses at another higher education institution. Upon application, they may be admitted to a study programme as cross-registered students if places are available.

This entitles them to:

- participate in courses,
- take examinations during the programme.

They must take their final examination at the home university.

The fee for ‘minor’ cross-registered students is €100 per semester.
